

Wonderful Advantages Offered During "Booster Period"

Only Six Days to Go—Time is Short—Booster Period
Closes 9 P. M., November 4th.

Contestants Are Gathering the Harvest While Sun Shines

The News Great Automobile Contest is Growing in Popularity
Every Day.

A plucky young lady called at the Campaign Manager's office, asking for a receipt book and information concerning The News' Automobile Contest. She was nominated by some friend—read what she says:

"I didn't know until today that anyone had considered me a possibility in The News' Auto Contest, and didn't know until a few minutes ago who it was that cast the first vote for me; but I am certainly going after that automobile, for I consider it a most liberal offer. Too late? Mercy, no! Seems to be that this is just the right time to get in this battle. Six days is a mighty short time, yes, but one can do wonders in six days."

This was about the substance of the conversation with this young lady, and she has the right spirit to make a good contestant, with all the nerve and confidence necessary to win. She did not ask a single question—did not seem to care how the race was going—she just seemed to consider that she was going to be the only one in the race. This is the right spirit.

EVERYBODY A WINNER MAKES THE CANDIDATES WORK EAGERLY.

The splendid prizes and the increasing popularity of The News are the things that are producing phenomenal interest in this contest. Just think of the fine chance that you have of winning a handsome prize. No better time in the world to get into this friendly struggle than right now and get in the field before some one else "mops up."

"BOOSTER PERIOD" ON THE

FINAL STRETCH—JUST SIX MORE DAYS.

Hesitation now means lose—stop—think—consider. You must make every minute count—every second. You must work day and night—work all the time and when not working, be figuring and planning what you are going to do next. Don't let one minute be wasted in this great battle of ballots. "Booster Period" is early in the contest, so that everyone can have an equal chance, and gives everyone a golden opportunity while the contest is young. Remember its subscriptions that count. Its through subscriptions that you can win—no other way possible—subscriptions count for votes and votes win.

SECOND BIG "BOOSTER PERIOD" SPECIAL OFFER.

Read this carefully—its good for a week only and comes at the wind up of "Booster Period." Here it is:

From October 29th to November 4th, at 9 p. m., we will issue 100,000 extra votes to each of the four contestants who lead during this time—the four contestants turning in the most money for subscriptions from October 29th to November 4th at 9 p. m.

DON'T BE BLUFFED.

One utterly needless source of discouragement to the timid contestant is the fear in which they hold some other contestant. They hear all kinds of wild rumors, that "so and so" has a bunch of subscriptions already. Rumor is ever untrustworthy and no reports are so apt to be exaggerated as these. In fact "live wire" contestants are apt to circulate reports of this kind on purpose. It is a pretty safe plan to cut these reports in the middle—or even more than this, suppose you know that some one else has a few thousand more than you have—what of it? The remedy lies in your own hands. Get out among your friends and get subscriptions and overcome this lead, and then hold the whiphand yourself. The more subscriptions you get the more confident you will become, and the feeling of fear will pass away—you will be able to approach anyone with a more confident feeling. Talk is nothing but words and talk don't win anything in this contest. Subscriptions are the things that count—subscriptions mean votes—and a nice bunch of them during this final week of Booster Period. Less talk and more votes make a better showing in the standing column. Remember the slow going Tortoise—he won because he stuck everlastingly at it.

WORK AND YOU WILL NOT LOSE.

This paper wishes to reward every contestant who qualifies in this race and if you don't win a prize you will be paid ten per cent of all money that you turn in for subscriptions. Remember all contestants are expected to report to the Campaign Manager at least once each week.

NO APOLOGY NECESSARY.

No apology is necessary in soliciting subscriptions to The News—you know that they are going to get their money's worth many times over. Any one who get the habit of reading The News will never be without it. Subscriptions are climbing at a lively rate and the editor is much elated over the success. The contestants are "live wires" and are giving a good amount of themselves. We appeal to the general public to give them their assistance when they call for they are worthy of your help.

LEAD, DON'T FOLLOW.

This should be your slogan. There are always plenty of followers—but the real leaders are few. The Campaign Manager has been fortunate in getting into this contest real leaders. They are not only leaders, but they possess the qualifications of making leaders out of others. It is interesting to note the perfect working machinery of some of them—just how they go about their work—their follow-up system, and how they keep behind each and everyone who might subscribe. They would be a power in the political field, for it is organization that always spells success. Now, only six more working days of "Booster Period." Don't let the final hour come and then have to say, "Why didn't I take advantage of my opportunity?" Remember, November 4th, at 9 p. m., is the close of Booster Period.

ARE YOU DOING YOUR BEST?

The Contest Manager could lay his hands on several contestants who are not—who are not even grabbing opportunities in their path. You are not treating yourself right. Now is the accepted time—do things—get results. You have the same chance as anyone else. Determine now to take advantage of it. Are you reading the contest stories each week—do you realize the wonderful prizes being offered and given by The News.

Grand prize, a 5-Passenger Ford Automobile. Second prize, a Victor Victrola. Third prize, a suite of Furniture, and a percent if you do not win. You are not restricted to territory, get subscriptions anywhere. Keep before you rule No. 1. "No votes will be allowed on subscriptions held more than one week." Turn in your subscription money promptly so as not to lose out. You can hold your votes and vote them anytime within the rules of the contest.
